Charming Villa for Sale in El Portet. This lovely villa is located in a sought-after community in Moraira, El Portet. To the front of the property there is off-road parking and a covered entrance porch which takes you into the very bright and spacious open-plan living area, with dining room, guest WC and American-style fully-fitted kitchen. The charming lounge benefits from a corner open fireplace and sliding patio doors which open to a spacious south-east facing terrace, from where you will enjoy lovely views across the valley, as well as the communal pool, Moraira's Cap d'Or and the sea. From the dining area, stairs lead down to a lower landing area. An archway will take you into a double bedroom with built-in wardrobes, together with a second double bedroom also with built-in wardrobes, and the family shower room. There is a store room and a further archway which leads through to the third single bedroom and a utility cupboard, which houses the domestic boiler and washing-machine. To the rear of the property there are low-maintenance private gardens from where you can enjoy views of the beautiful valley and hillside. Just a few paces away is the very private communal pool area, which has a large sunbathing terrace dotted with palms, stone benches...
